

Vol 17 Issue 9, September 2010

Please Announce at Meetings: The AIS Office continues to need volunteers to train to work in the Al-Anon office. The Board of Trustees is continuing in efforts to reduce costs and increase revenue. The Board welcomes suggestions from our membership. The Quarterly Al-Anon membership meeting is at 7 pm Sept. 9th, at St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church, 2424 NW 50th and Villa, in OKC. The Board meets at 6pm prior to the general meeting at 7pm. It is an open meeting, so attendance is encouraged. However, if attending the Board meeting, please be on time and understand that unless you are a board member, you are there to listen not participate. This is an excellent way to explore if you might want to serve on the board. Elections are in March. There will be five openings.

Office News: Richard is starting his third year as trusted secretary in the AIS office, and wishes to express his gratitude for this opportunity to serve. Office traffic has been pretty consistent the past few months. In August there were 135 phone calls, emails and faxes and 55 visitors. Thanks as always to the hotline volunteers. Charles S. continues to do updates on my computer. Special thanks to Ami B. for working the office in early August. The August Eat N Speak was a great success bringing in $414 to the AIS Office coffers after expenses. Thanks to Margaret W. for speaking. Host group 23rd and Council and co-host groups Christ the King and Wednesday 10 AM Western Club did a fine job. Our AIS Board of Trustees Chairman Mike M. sold $240 worth of literature. Literature will continue to be sold at the Eat N Speak Meetings.

Meeting change:

Harmony House, 212 S. 3rd, Ponca City has added a noon meeting on Tuesday.
